What does a sacristan do?

Before Mass, the sacristan prepares the altar with the chalice, ciboria, wine, and water, and organizes the necessary books and linens. They also manage the facilities by lighting candles and coordinate with the Lectors, servers, and Eucharistic Ministers to ensure everyone is prepared. After Mass, the sacristan handles the cleanup, including washing the sacred vessels. All training is provided by OLR.

Social Teaching # 3
Solidarity

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers' and sisters' keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that "if you want peace, work for justice." The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.

Faith opens us to knowing and welcoming the real identity of Jesus, his newness and oneness, his word, as a source of life, in order to live a personal relationship with him.

Knowledge of the faith grows, it grows with the desire to find the way and in the end it is a gift of God who does not reveal himself to us as an abstract thing without a face or a name, because faith responds to a Person who wants to enter into a relationship of deep love with us and to involve our whole life.
(Pope Benedict XVI, Angelus, 14 August 2011)
