Social Teaching # 5

Rights and Responsibilities

Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities- to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

*Jesus does not promise that discipleship will lead us away from the Cross.
He invites us to discover that somewhere within our crosses - within sacrifice, surrender, disappointment, love, and the daily giving of ourselves - we may begin to see differently.
Not merely as human beings see.
But as God sees.*

*And perhaps that is what it means to lose our lives for the sake of Christ:
to discover, little by little, the life that God has been inviting us to find.*
